GAIL GALLOWAY,

Plaintiff,

v.

PENNSYLVANIA BOARD OF PROBATION AND PAROLE et al.,

Defendants.

CIVIL NO. 1:CV-00-0649

MEMORANDUM

I. Background¹

Plaintiff, Gail Galloway, was released on parole on September 14, 1994. Plaintiff's house was searched on June 1, 1998, and various weapons were found in the bedroom of Plaintiff's 27 year old son, David Galloway. Plaintiff was subsequently incarcerated for 15½ months following the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole's finding that Plaintiff had violated his parole.

The instant action arises out of the June 1, 1998 search and seizure; certain events that occurred during Plaintiff's subsequent incarceration; the disposition of Plaintiff's petition for writ of habeas corpus; and a forfeiture action involving the seized weapons. The named Defendants include: the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole and sixteen other individuals including employees and officials of the Board; the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections; the former Governor of Pennsylvania; the District Attorney of Huntingdon County,
